

How do I get started?

The first step of admittance is to contact our Admissions Department at:

314-838-8858 Ext. 6501

admissions@urshancollege.org

<https://urshancollege.org/admissions/application-checklist/application/>

When can I register for classes?

After you are processed by Admissions, you will be contacted by our Distance Learning Department to register for courses.

When can I apply for Federal Financial Aid?

For more information please connect with the Director of Federal Financial Aid at:

314-838-8858 Ext 2116

<https://urshancollege.org/financial-aid/>

What about scholarships?

Scholarships are available for students taking a full-time course load of 9 credits or more:

<https://urshancollege.org/admissions/institutional-financial-aid/>

How much does a course cost?

Refer to the “Tuition and Fee” page under Distance Learning for more information:

<https://urshancollege.org/academics/distance-learning/uc-online-tuitionandfees/>

Do I have to pay upfront for all my classes?

No, our Student Accounts office will help you set up a deferred payment plan:

314-838-8858 Ext. 3114

<https://urshancollege.org/wp-content/uploads/2018/01/Deferred-Payment-Plan.pdf>

Will I need to come on campus to take any courses?

No, all courses are accessible via Canvas. (Our web-based learning management system)

Do I need special equipment or technology to take courses?

For the most up-to-date technology requirements please refer to the “Technology Requirements” page on our website

<https://urshancollege.org/academics/distance-learning/technology/>

Will I be able to interact with other students in courses?

Yes, you will be able to engage with the professor and other students throughout the course.

I have taken several courses through Purpose Institute; will these courses count toward a program of study at Urshan College?

Yes, the Academic Dean will review your Purpose Institute credits and determine approval.

Can I transfer credits from another school?

Submit all official transcripts to the Admissions Department with your application. Upon acceptance to Urshan, the registrar will review and transfer credits accordingly.